

AFRICA CENTER
FOR STRATEGIC STUDIES

Session 1: Ethnicity, Governance and Stability

Mr. Mvemba Dizolele

Africa

Central and East Africa

What is Ethnicity?

Identity with or membership in a particular racial, national, or cultural group and observance of that group's customs, beliefs, and language.

Ethnicity, Religion and Race

Ethnicity intersects with Race and Religion

Example 1:

Darfuris vs. Janjaweed

Both groups are Sudanese, Muslims and Black

But Janjaweed claim to be Arab.

Example 2:

Muslim refers to religion while Arab is an ethnicity. Although most Arabs are Muslims, 63 percent of Arab American are Christians, 24 percent are Muslim and 13 percent belong to another religion or practice no particular faith. (Zogby International Survey, 2002)

Historical Background

- Colonization and Legacy
- French, Portuguese, Belgian and British Approaches to the region
- The Independence Movement
- The Cold War
- Regional Cooperation

Social Contract

- Ethnicity in and of itself is not the cause of conflict.
- Ethnicity can fuel conflict when the social contract fails and segments of society:
 1. Feel discriminated against
 2. Harbor grievances
 3. Feel excluded or marginalized
 4. Do not benefit from economic growth

Ethnicity, Governance and Conflict

- Does Ethnicity cause conflict?
- Traditional school of thought holds that ethnic nationalism is the root cause of conflict.
- Another school of thought holds that ethnically diverse countries no more prone to conflict than others. (Fearon)

Overview of Regional Geopolitics

- The Rwandan Genocide
- Burundian Conflict
- DR Congo and State Dysfunction
- Central African Republic
- Republic of Congo
- Regional Actors and their Influence on Peace and Stability
- The Role of International Actors and Donors

Reconstruction and State Re-Building

- Constitution-Making
- Problematizing Liberation and Democratization
- Strongmen vs. Strong Institutions

Let Me Do My Job

LUBA Dessinateur, Caricaturiste / ADEP / Kinshasa

National Identity, Ethnicity and Citizenship

- Land, Languages and Power
- Identity Formation and Citizenship
- Realities and Perceptions
- Ethnicity as Obstacle to Peace

Ethnicity, Gender, Education

Ethnicity, Gender, Education

Ethnicity, Gender, Education

Ethnicity and Security Sector Reform

Ethnicity and Security Sector Reform

Who Fills the State Dysfunction Gap?

- Civil Society Organizations
- Non-Governmental Agencies
- The Church, Religion
- The International Community
- War Entrepreneurs

Mvemba Phezo Dizolele – www.dizolele.com

Safeguards of Stability

- Opening of Political Space
- Freedom of the Press
- Transparent Management of Resources
- Equal Access to Institutions
- The Role of the State
- Civil Society Engagement
- Human Security vs. State Security

How Do External Partners Help Foster Stability?

- Acknowledge and account for ethnic diversity and its value for stability
- Cooperation policy ought to insist on equity among national stakeholders
- Approach the region with a long-term view of stability and peace
- Avoid the expediency of taking sides
- Integrate legitimacy, good governance and democracy as part of engagement

QUESTIONS/
COMMENTS?

AFRICA CENTER
FOR STRATEGIC STUDIES

www.africacenter.org