Training and Instructional Approach in Development at the Yaoundé Staff Officers School

Training for Trainers

- Peacekeeping Instruction,
- Exploitation of Military Intelligence,
- Counter-terrorism and Counterinsurgency Incorporated into Tactical Reasoning, and
- Development of Leadership Capabilities and Military Management.

Meeting the Needs of SOS Managers in Relation to the Security Environment

 The initial session from 10 to 15
October 2016 at the Yaoundé Staff Officers
School (Tactical Reasoning for Counterterrorism and Counterinsurgency).

The second session from 12 to 20
November 2016 for Peacekeeping Instruction.

The 9 to 15 April 2016 session
dedicated to Instruction and Evaluation
Methods in Montgomery (Alabama) at the "Air Command and Staff College".

Content:
New and Complex Themes
Enhanced Standards for Managers

Structure:

A more objective methodology.

Methodology learned through participation by objectives in local management.

"Participation by Objectives"

A lecture course

- Individual research and additional knowledge
- Instructor guide

with AMEP

- Clearly establish the objectives for a session,
- Specify the instructional sources and additional readings,
- Training in document research,
- Group discussions with the professor and trainees,
- Dynamic exchanges, and
- Training officer trainees to be trainers.

Conclusion

- Four student promotions,
- Supplementary peacekeeping module and instruction by school staff,
- Managers with higher confidence in their management roles,
- Significant components on exploiting military intelligence, leadership, and military management still under development by the AMEP program.