National Security Strategy Development
The Workshop Overview
8th April 2019
Gaborone, Botswana

Luka Kuol
Africa Center for Strategic Studies

Why this Workshop?

- Inability of many African countries to deliver citizen-focused security.
- A vision-led national security strategy provides a nation with a clear framework for addressing its multifaceted security threats
- Yet, very few African countries have a written, comprehensive and coordinated strategy to pursue their strategic national security goals.
- This workshop aims to provide a multidisciplinary forum to discuss issues related to the crafting of national security strategy

What do we want to achieve?

- Better grasp the evolving meaning of concept of security.
- Identification and prioritization of national security threats and division of labor between and among security sector institutions and agencies.
- Methodology, processes, elements and products of a NSSD,
- Resources and Partnership
- Oversight Mechanisms and Institutions
